Exhibitor Information

Welcome all attendees and exhibitors to the Lake Erie Section IFT 2019 Expo Event!

On behalf of all of the board members, for all of your support throughout this 2018-2019 season, we thank you.

Please take advantage of the multitude of exhibitors this year ready to answer your questions, help you solve lingering ingredient and manufacturing challenges, and to introduce you to the latest and greatest offerings in the industry. Around each turn of an aisle is a new selection of vendors waiting to provide inspiration for you to take back to your operation. So grab a drink, enjoy some food, and take a few laps through the expo floor. You never know what you might find!

Wishing you a wonderful show experience, thank you for attending The 2019 Lake Erie Section IFT Suppliers' Expo.

Cheers,
Nikki Johns
Chairperson
Lake Erie Section IFT
